

Global Travel Policy

Title: Global Travel Policy

1. Purpose

The purpose of this Global Travel Policy is to establish guidelines for business travel to ensure the safety, efficiency, and cost-effectiveness of travel arrangements.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all employees of First Derivatives, who are required to travel for business purposes, both domestically and internationally.

3. Travel Authorization

All business travel must be pre-approved by the employee's supervisor or department head. Employees must complete a travel request form and obtain necessary approvals before making any travel arrangements.

4. Booking Travel

Employees should book travel through the company's preferred travel agency or online booking tool.

Employees should book travel at least 14 days in advance to take advantage of lower fares. All travel should be booked in economy class unless otherwise approved.

5. Accommodation

Employees should book accommodations through the company's preferred hotels or booking platforms.

Accommodation should be cost-effective and within the budget set by the company. Any upgrades or additional expenses must be pre-approved.

6. Transportation

Employees should use the most economical mode of transportation that is reasonable and safe.

Use of personal vehicles for business travel should be pre-approved, and employees will be reimbursed for mileage at the standard rate.

Rental cars should be booked through the company's preferred providers.

7. Meals and Entertainment

Employees will be reimbursed for reasonable meal expenses incurred during business travel.

Receipts must be provided for all meal expenses.

Any entertainment expenses must be pre-approved and must be justified as necessary for business purposes.

8. Travel Insurance

The company will provide travel insurance for all employees traveling on business.

Employees should carry a copy of the insurance policy and emergency contact numbers while traveling.

9. Health and Safety

Employees should familiarize themselves with health and safety risks associated with their travel destinations.

Employees must comply with all vaccination and health requirements for international travel.

Employees should use the company's emergency contact system to report any incidents or emergencies while traveling.

10. Reimbursement

Employees must submit a travel expense report within 14 days of returning from a business trip.

All expenses must be supported by original receipts or invoices.

Reimbursement will be processed within 30 days of receiving the expense report.

11. Compliance

Employees are expected to comply with this travel policy at all times.

Non-compliance may result in disciplinary action and/or denial of reimbursement for travel expenses.

12. Policy Review

This policy will be reviewed annually and updated as necessary to ensure it remains relevant and effective.
